Started his career as a kitchen apprentice before graduating from The Sol Hotel School – Madrid, in Business & Tourism Administration in 1993. He then joined Sol Melia hotel group working his way up in hospitality until 1997 when he moved to the Melia at Scotts Singapore. This marked the beginning of his seven-year experience working through several Sol Melia properties in Asia.

Looking for a new challenge, Jose joined The Balé in Nusa Dua Bali in November 2002 as its General Manager until April 2005, when he decided to pursue his own vision and founded Lifestyle Retreats, the first of several ventures in various industries: hospitality, energy efficiency, financial services and asset management.

In addition to his professional obligations, Jose is also an active member in various social and community focused organizations such as;

- Rotary Club Nusa Dua, Bali
- Skall
- Bali Hotels Association
- Chaîne des Rotisseurs
